Department of Mathematical Sciences

The Department offers three Masters programmes: M. Sc. Mathematics (specialisation : Applied Mathematics), M. Sc. Mathematics (Morning) and M. Sc. Mathematics (Evening). All these programmes are of two years duration and comprise 4 Semesters each. The Department initiated postgraduate programme in Mathematics largely to prepare manpower for teaching and research. The postgraduate programme in M. Sc. Mathematics (specialisation : Applied Mathematics) has been conceived with the aim of developing among students mathematical skills and acumen required in real life problems in the fields of medicine, agriculture, industry, trade, finance etc. It prepares them for jobs in banks, corporate sectors, industry etc.

The first two semesters of all post graduate programmes are common. In the third semester, the students split into two streams. The fourth semester is partially devoted to execution of project work to train students in problem identification and solving. Furthermore, each student has to compulsorily pass one non-creditable massive open online course (MOOCs) under SWAYAM platform during two-year programme.

The Department maintains rich library, which is being liberal funded by the National Board of Higher Mathematics, and a well equipped computer lab.

M.Sc. Physics

Physics is the natural science that involves the study of matter and its motion and behavior through space and time, along with related concepts such as energy and time. The boundaries of Physics are not rigidly defined. It intersects many interdisciplinary areas of research, such as biophysics and quantum chemistry. Physics makes significant contributions by advancing new technologies through theoretical breakthroughs. Understanding of electromagnetism and nuclear physics have led to the development of products, such as television, Computers, domestic appliances and nuclear weapons that have dramatically transformed modern-day society. Advances in thermodynamics led to industrialization and advances in mechanics inspired development of calculus.

In recognition of the role Physics has played and is likely to play in taking mankind forward, United Nations named 2005 the World Year of Physics.

The University has launched Masters programme in Physics to provide avenues of higher studies in Physics to graduates based out by colleges which are spread over the twin districts of Rajouri and Poonch in particular and the country as a whole.

University Polytechnic

The University has unique distinction of having established the first Centrally funded Polytechnic in collaboration with the J&K State Government. The need of Polytechnic was felt on account of non-availability of any such institute in the region at that time which could meet the great market demand for skilled middle level engineers. Many young school passouts who do not have the means or aptitude to pursue higher studies run from pillar to post in search of vocational training to acquire some skill for making a living. The skilled work force that the University Polytechnic is generating is meeting this demand.

The Polytechnic imparts technical education through Diploma courses in :

- Electronics & Communication Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Civil Engineering

Each Diploma course is of 3 years duration, consisting of 6 semesters during which training is provided through classroom lectures, laboratory work and workshop practice. Hands-on training is imparted to students during Summer training and execution of project work during the last two semesters.

Course Curriculum for Diploma Engineering

The Curriculum of first two Semesters is mostly common to all four Streams. Diversification starts in Semester III.

M. A. Islamic Studies

School of Islamic Studies and Languages is one of the eight Schools which were initially conceived at the time of inception of this University way back in 2005. For a little over a decade the School continued with a single Department, namely Department of Arabic which offers B.A. Arabic (Hons.), M.A. Arabic, M.Phil. and Ph.D. programmes. Department of English was added in 2014. All along this period, the need was felt to start M.A. in Islamic Studies, which was finally started in August 2017.

The above programme has opened avenues for passouts from dozens of Colleges of the State which teach Islamic Studies as an elective subject at under-graduate level. The programme will help learners in exploring Islam as religion, promoting study of Islamic culture and civilization besides imparting knowledge about social, political economic and cultural trends in Arab World & other Muslim Countries.

The areas of study of the programme will include history of Islam, Islamic Religious Sciences (Quran, Hadith & Fiqh), Spirituality in Islam, Comparative study of religions, Muslim Philosophy and Islam in the Modern World (Thinkers, Movements & Trends). The programme is thus proposed to help learners in exploring Islam as Religion, promoting study of 'Islamic Culture and Civilization' besides Inter-Community relations & interfaith dialogue.

M. A. Urdu

The University has School of Islamic Studies and Languages with Masters programmes in Arabic, Islamic Studies and English. Urdu is taught at undergraduate level to students of B. A. Arabic (Hons.) There was persistent demand for introduction of Masters Degree programme in Urdu in view of the fact that it is taught at undergraduate level in all Colleges of the twin districts of Rajouri and Poonch and the passouts have no avenues for pursuing it at postgraduate level. Moreover Urdu is the official language of Jammu & Kashmir State and the second most popular language of the country.

On account of its reach and richness, English language has grown in its popularity and has become the lingua franca. Even countries averse to it in the past are attempting to gain proficiency in this language. With the world having shrunk and the job and trade markets becoming open to all irrespective of nationality more and more young Indians are moving out of the Country in pursuit of greener pastures. Proficiency in English provides them an edge over others. No wonder, therefore, it is satisfying to find Indians occupying high positions in all spheres the World over.

Indians have lately taken to writing in English. Quite a few have earned distinction and their writings are in great demand. In view of its richness as language and the help it provides in gaining employability, the University has started full time post - graduate programme in English of two years duration and consists of four semesters.

Centre for Biodiversity Studies

Centre for Biodiversity Studies (CBS) was established in Baba Ghulam Shah Badshah University in the year 2005 as founder constituent of the School of Biosciences & Biotechnology. It started functioning in 2007, with the specific mandate to undertake studies on biodiversity of the local terrain in particular and of the Pir Panjal Himalayan mountain range in general. A comprehensive Road Map for its functioning was prepared in 2008. Following its establishment, two important adjuncts were added to it: the Biodiversity Park christened as the Pir Panjal Biodiversity Park, and the BGSBU Botanical Garden. The Centre is involved in activities broadly classifiable into three categories:

1. Research
2. Extension
3. Environmental Education

Research

In consonance with its mandate, research work in conventional and modern biology is being undertaken at CBS along the following lines:

1. Inventorization of plants, animals and microbes.
2. Exploration of intraspecific variation using morphological, cytological and molecular markers.
3. Estimation of species abundance.
4. Studying life-cycle patterns of dominant and economically useful taxa.
5. Identification of endemics, studying their abundance and attempting their multiplication.
6. Identification of rare and threatened species, and exploring the stress they are facing, remedying the causes, and attempting their conservation (both in situ and ex situ) and rehabilitation.
7. Locating exotics, including invasive species, assessing their impact on native taxa, and evolving methodology to contain them.
8. Exploration of plant-animal interactions of all kinds.

Extension

The achievements of Science and Technology have not percolated to masses, particularly in the Country's hinterlands to the extent desired. Rajouri Poonch belt is no exception. CBS has launched programme for imparting such skills to rural women as will help them to utilize bio-resources available at their doorsteps and convert them into assets, using technologies evolved in laboratories. These programmes aim at:

- Organizing women, trained in the above crafts, into co-operatives to initiate and encourage entrepreneurship.
- Arranging linkages between budding women entrepreneurs and the market.
- Linking rural women with banks to mobilize loans.
- Providing them technical support to foster bio-resources based enterprises.
- Organizing in-service training programmes for the staff of bio-resource related organizations.

The technologies approved by the Department of Biotechnology, New Delhi for dissemination among rural women of Rajouri are:

- Vermicomposting
- Biocrafts
- Medicinal-plant Cultivation
- Mushroom Culturing

M. Sc. Microbiology

Microbiology is one of the oldest and the most important discipline of Life Sciences as it deals with the study of microorganisms which have profound role in human health. Since studies on microbiology have both fundamental as well as applied aspect, BGSBU has introduced a 2-years course of Master of Science in Microbiology. The course curriculum is as per the Choice Based Credit System prescribed by UGC and covers the entire spectrum of microbial studies including bacteriology, virology, mycology and protozoology. It also covers applied microbiology as part of biotechnology along with specialized papers for Agricultural Microbiology and Medical Microbiology. Highly trained and qualified faculty members, with several years of teaching and research experience from reputed National and International Universities and Institutes, are teaching the course. Microbiology offers great potential of employment in production of pharmaceuticals, medicine and diagnostics and Food and Beverages besides providing opportunities to continue in research pursuits or employment in teaching sector.
